OUSTED CUBAN LEADERS HELD UNDER GUARD

Three Hundred Officers Virtual Prisoners With Guns Trained on Quarters

U.S. NAVY SECRETARY DEPARTS FOR PANAMA

(Copyright, 1933, by the Associated Press)
HAVANA, Sept. 8 (AP).—Three hundred Cuban army officers, ousted by their troops Monday, were held in the Hotel Nacional, diverting attention from attempts of the executive commission to select a new president of Cuba. Machine guns were trained on the hotel, where the officers were held, and all automobiles approaching it were searched. Bedlam reigned for a time in the hotel lobby as officers, A.B.C. members and students, many of them armed with rifles and pistols, created general uproar that finally quieted, bringing a sign of relief from the city.

REMAINS TWO HOURS
The new developments reached a climax shortly after the cruiser Indianapolis had steamed from the harbor with Secretary of the Navy Claude Swanson, who remained in the port two hours without coming ashore. He was en route to Panama and the West Coast.

PROPOSAL TURNED DOWN
This followed a flat refusal to accede to a proposal that Manuel de Céspedes be reinstated as president. A commission set up to consider the proposal.

KING FEISAL OF IRAQ DIES

Succumbs Suddenly to Heart Attack in Hotel at Berne

BERNE, Switzerland, Sept. 8 (AP).—King Feisal of Iraq died suddenly, early today, after an attack in his hotel here. He was forty-eight.

He returned here only a few days ago from Baghdad, his capital, after interrupting a course of treatment to travel to London for conferences in connection with Assyrian troubles in his country.

A SOLDIER'S HONORS
In recognition of his war service to Great Britain, the former Iraqi mandatory power, will transfer the body by destroyer from Denos, Italy, to Alexandria, Egypt, and thence by airplane to Baghdad.

The king died in bed, in sharp contrast to his romantic life in the desert of Arabia, where he fought daily with the Turks during the Great War, in leading a handful of warriors on perilous exploits.

At the outbreak of the Great War he was at Mecca, the starting point of a prominent part of the Arab revolt in which he joined forces with General Allenby in a campaign which culminated in the capture of Aleppo in October, 1918.

BUILT FROM WRECK
After the Great War his campaign, with the assistance of Lawrence of Arabia (T. E. Lawrence), finally resulted in the setting up of a kingdom in the Arabian Peninsula, the kingdom he later was to head.

He was elected King of Iraq on August 23, 1921, in a plebiscite in which he received 96 per cent of the votes. Great Britain became the mandatory power, and the country made rapid strides.

LONG LIVE THE KING!
BAGDAD, Iraq, Sept. 8 (AP).—Crown Prince Ghazi was sworn in today, as King of Iraq, succeeding his father, King Feisal, who died suddenly in Berne, Switzerland, of a heart attack.

South Africa Subsidizing Italian Ships

LONDON, Sept. 8 (CP).—Belief that an agreement has been reached between the South African Government and two Italian steamship lines, by which the former will pay a subsidy of £200,000 annually to the shipping firms to carry Cape produce to Italy has caused a sensation in British shipping circles.

It is reported that the Associated Chambers of Commerce at Cape Town stress the fact the Government would be committed to subsidizing foreign shipping lines which traffic with a country with which South Africa has no reciprocal trade agreement.

Rescue Crew at Work on Train Wreck

RESCUERS are shown here removing the bodies of victims from the wrecked wooden coach of the Erie Railroad's Chicago-New York passenger train in which fourteen passengers perished when it was run down by a fast milk train near Binghamton, N.Y. The coach shown was caught between two cars.

IRRIGATION CHARGES DOUBLED; BASIS OF METER RATES FILED

Heavy Deficit for Financial Year Shown by Quebec Books

QUEBEC, Sept. 8 (CP).—The Province of Quebec had a deficit of $6,840,907.96 in the fiscal year ending June 30 last, it was disclosed in the Government's financial statement issued tonight. The statement was prepared early for submission to the banking commission headed by Lord Macmillan and will be published in the Gazette tomorrow.

The deficit, the Government says, is "directly attributable to the extraordinary times in which we live, as the crisis has made calls upon all governments which were extraordinary."

Independents to Co-operate With Non-Party Group

W. J. Bowser and Rolf Bruhn Agree to Concerted Action at Formation of Independent Party in Vancouver—Leadership to Be Left to Decision of Those Elected

(Special to The Colonist)
VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—W. J. Bowser, K.C., former premier, who formed a new political organization in British Columbia in association with Dugald Donaghy, K.C., one-time Liberal member of the Federal House, has thrown his lot in with the sundry independents who flocked together in Vancouver today to plan concerted action in the coming campaign. It was reported in well-informed circles here tonight. In doing so, it is said, Mr. Bowser agreed that the question of leadership in the Legislature should be deferred for selection by the elected representatives.

AIRMEN ARE BELIEVED SAFE

Polish Balloon in Gordon Bennett Race Sighted in Quebec

CHICAGO, Sept. 8 (AP).—Reports from Quebec, Canada, that a balloon with green, red and blue decorations had been seen Monday by fishermen, gave rise tonight to belief that the Polish entrants in the twenty-first annual James Gordon Bennett balloon race were safe, and fighting their way back to civilization.

Authorities at race headquarters said that both the bag and basket of the Polish balloon manned by Captain Franciszek Hrynck and Lieut. Byrnski, were spotted with those colors.

Cliff Henderson, managing director of the international air race, started last Saturday, said that searching planes would go into the district tomorrow.

Pears continued, however, for the safety of Ward T. Van Orman, pilot of the Goodyear IX, of Akron, and his wife, Frank A. Troster. It was feared they may have been blown out over the Atlantic.

Motive Is Sought in Silent Assassination On Ladysmith Street

Douglas Syme Stabbed to Heart—Robbery Theory Is Discounted

SUSPICIONS POINT TO SEVERAL INDIVIDUALS

(Special to The Colonist)
LADYSMITH, Sept. 8.—Mystery surrounds the silent slaying of R. Douglas Syme, aged twenty-four, a well-known resident of Ladysmith, late Thursday night, on French Street. He was stabbed to the heart. His body was found on a road by Mrs. L. Poulain, almost in front of her home.

Late tonight, Provincial Police were working on what were believed to be very important clues pointing to the identity of the murderer. Suspicion, it was said, pointed to several individuals, but whether they were local residents or transients could not be learned.

ATTACK SUDDEN
Robbery, apparently, was not the motive, as the young man had not been working for a considerable period. There was no evidence that his clothing had been disturbed.

That the attack was sudden and unexpected is shown by the fact that no sign was found on the earthen pathway of a struggle.

According to reports, Douglas Syme had been in company with several persons earlier in the evening. He is said to have visited friends on French Street and left shortly before 11 o'clock. A few moments later, Mrs. Poulain found his body between First and Second Avenues, beside the pathway. She called her husband, who telephoned for a doctor and to Police Constable Byatt.

NO OUTCRY HEARD
The young man, who was one of the victims of the attack, was found in a pool of blood.

FLOOD THREAT CAUSES ALARM

Terrific Downpour Sends Wall of Water Towards Devastated Area

HARLINGEN, Tex., Sept. 8 (AP).—A great flood from its Mexican tributaries surged down the Rio Grande tonight, carrying the threat of levee break along the emergency floodway and inundated lowlands to the area devastated by a hurricane on Monday and Tuesday.

As the crest passed Rio Grande City, seventy-five miles upstream, gauges at Hidalgo and Mission rose ominously and the water began to enter the floodway at Mission, where it leaves the river and goes to Laguna Madre on the gulf, miles north of the river's mouth.

SWOLLEN BY RAIN
An aerial survey of the river district above Edinburg revealed a volume of water much greater than was expected last night when the San Juan River, swollen by a thirteen-inch rain at Monterey, Mexico, caused a rise at Rio Grande City, where it empties into the Rio Grande.

The twenty-four hour flood rose to a level list in the hurricane at Matamoros, Mexico. The injured totaled 500 but few were seriously hurt.

A COSTLY MOVE
CRESTON, B.C., Sept. 8 (CP).—Mr. and Mrs. De O'Neill thought it would be a good idea to sleep in a tent short distance from their home so as to keep watch for robbers who had depleted their poultry flock, but, as they slumbered, their home was destroyed by fire, along with $5 obtained through sale of a cow.

SPANISH GOV'T QUILTS OFFICE

Differences in Cabinet Is Caused Through Treaty With Uruguay

MADRID, Sept. 8 (AP).—The Government of Premier Manuel Azana collapsed today under the load of reverses in last Sunday's election for members of a tribunal of constitutional guarantee and the gradual disintegration of the parties supporting the Government, especially the Radical Socialists and the Federals.

President Niceto Alcalá Zamora immediately began conferences with a number of Government leaders. The first called in was Julian Besteiro, president of the Legislative Assembly.

DIFFER ON TRADE TREATY
Another point at issue was differences within the Cabinet concerning a trade treaty with Uruguay.

Azana revealed in a statement that the position of the Government became critical at yesterday's Cabinet meeting when the President posed three questions.

After lengthy deliberation the Cabinet members decided they could not answer the questions satisfactorily and turned in their resignations.

Conference's Failure Explained By "Brain Trust" Head

PORT HOPE, Ont., Sept. 8 (CP).—The World Economic Conference in London failed because it adhered to economic ideas that were outworn and was too closely concerned with saving things that could not be saved, Professor Raymond Moley, former head of President Roosevelt's "brain trust," told the Liberal Summer Conference here tonight.

He admitted what he described as the necessity of the United States maintaining its freedom in tariffs and monetary affairs was a contributory cause of the conference's failure.

Government interest in United States business was there, he said, because business men went to Washington and said: "For God's sake, help us."

Reorganization Of Federal Work Offices Outlined

Engineering Branches at Victoria, New Westminster and Nelson Closing—J. P. Forde Will Direct Service From New Vancouver Headquarters—Ten Are Retiring

(Special to The Colonist)
OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—Amalgamation of all Federal engineering districts in British Columbia and the Yukon, with headquarters at Vancouver, involving the closing down of former district headquarters at Victoria, New Westminster and Nelson, will go into immediate effect, it was learned here today. Orders have gone out through the Federal Department of Works, under Hon. H. A. Stewart, providing for the concentration of all engineering services of the branch at Vancouver.

J. P. Forde, formerly district engineer at Victoria and acting-superintendent of public works for British Columbia, is placed in charge of the amalgamated service, with the title of district engineer, in charge of works in British Columbia and the Yukon, including dredging and dredging equipment. An engineering staff of twenty-eight is being reduced to fourteen, involving the retirement on superannuation of ten members of the existing staffs as well as four retirements made earlier in the year.

TO CLOSE OFFICES
Engineering offices at Victoria, New Westminster and Nelson are to be closed entirely, and their remaining staffs transferred to the new central headquarters at Vancouver. This will not affect the architect's office at Victoria or services other than engineering. Suitable offices for the amalgamated service are to be leased at Vancouver, from which point the work of the entire branch will be administered.

A gross annual saving on salaries of $36,420 is claimed for the change, or a net saving of $32,778 yearly counting existing salary deductions of ten per cent. Other savings include maintenance, traveling expenses and supplies, etc., have also been taken into account in the decision to bring about the change.

TEN ARE RETIRING
Ten engineers and others retiring on superannuation under the change, will go on retiring leave of from

FATALLY SHOT IN EFFORT TO MAKE ARRESTS

C.P.R. Constable Murdered in Railway Yards at Lanoraie, Quebec

TWO MEN HELD IN JAIL AT MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Sept. 8 (CP).—Constable James Mackie, forty-three, of the Canadian Pacific Railway Police, died in hospital, tonight, as a result of bullet wounds received today while attempting to arrest two men in the railway yards at Lanoraie, Quebec, in connection with the attempted robbery of a freight car.

Death came after three blood transfusions had been given Constable Mackie. Following first aid treatment in Joliette, Quebec, shortly after the shooting, he was rushed to Montreal, where physicians toiled throughout the day to prevent death. Constable Mackie received four bullet wounds—two in the left arm, one in the chest, and the fourth in the abdomen.

Meanwhile Paul Tholin, twenty-eight, was in police custody at Joliette as a result of the shooting. He was arrested by Constable W. G. Miller, also of the Canadian Pacific Police, who was patrolling the Lanoraie yards when Constable Mackie when the attempted robbery of a freight car occurred.

SAYS TRADE TO INCREASE

Dr. Inazo Nitobe Tells of Great Market in Japan for Canada

Increase in Canadian trade with Japan is foreseen by Dr. Inazo Nitobe, member of the House of Peers in Japan, at present in Victoria, who says that the United States National Recovery Act will tend to raise tariffs, curtailing relationships and divert Japanese commerce with that country to the Dominion.

Dr. Nitobe attended the Pacific Relations Conference at Banff recently, and at present he is residing at the Beach Hotel with his wife. Before returning to his home in Tokyo he will make a three months' business visit to New York.

Japan is anxious for Canada's wheat, and will continue to be a great market for it owing to the increasing popularity of bread in that country. For thirty-five years attempts have been made to grow wheat of high gluten content for bread making, but climatic conditions defeat the efforts.

OPTIMISTIC NOTE
An optimistic note for the lumbering and pulp industries was sounded by Dr. Nitobe when he said that those commodities will continue to find ready markets in Japan, as the newspapers there are in constant need of paper manufactured from these exports.

Japanese and Canadian exporters, especially those of British Columbia, are on the friendly terms, he stated, and he believes that there is a large import business with the Dominion. Long and satisfactory trade relationships are to be expected, he concluded.

A leader in Japan, Dr. Nitobe was delegated to the League of Nations at Geneva at its formation in 1919 and served his country there for seven years. He was Under-Secretary-General when he left in 1926.

Fire Destroying Manitoba Timber

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8 (CP).—Beyond control, sweeping past guards erected by volunteers and forestry men, a forest fire menaced 2,500 acres, made up mostly of valuable timber land, in the Middleboro district of southeastern Manitoba.

Reports from the fire area last night said the flames, held in check by Thursday's rain, had again got beyond control. From Sprague, ten miles to the west, came reports that tons of stacked hay have been destroyed.

City's Business

Times must be getting better, say the taxicab companies in Victoria, because more people are riding in their cars than they did last year. Many of the taxi companies report an average volume of business, more or less the same as for the same period in 1932, but in several instances larger numbers of passengers are being carried.

One company in particular reported that their volume of business had increased so materially that they were forced to purchase two new cars to accommodate the added patronage.

Chaplin Was Marked In Wholesale Murder Conspiracy in Japan

Naval Officer on Trial for Complicity in Assassination of Premier Believed Comedian's Death Would Provoke War With U.S.

Charlie Chaplin had a narrow escape on the occasion of his last visit to Japan. He was one of the "marked" men by the Blood Brotherhood. In the trial recently conducted at Tokyo, and which had been in progress for some time, a note of tragic comedy was injected into the proceedings when it was revealed by the leader of the military and naval cadets mixed up in the assassination of Yoshiro Inukai, Premier of Japan, was giving his testimony.

The testimony by First Sub-Lieutenant Kiyoshi Koga, leader of ten naval officers charged with rebellion in bringing about the May 15 incident last year, when a number of military and naval officers burst into the Premier's residence and shot him to death, occupied several days.

During the testimony, the naval officer attempted to explain why last year he and his fellows staged the sensational raids on the Premier's residence.

He was asked what the connections between the accused navy officers and the Blood Brotherhood was. He told the court that the civilians, army, and navy maintained inseparable connections. The Blood Brotherhood was to act as the vanguard in the May 15 incident, and the latter were to act as the main force. In carrying out all the plans, the conspirators hoped to induce the entire army and navy to join them.

Asked what were the details of the plan to disturb the Diet session of May, 1932, and what was responsible for giving them up, led to Koga's reference to Chaplin. He probably was the innocent cause of upsetting other acts of terrorism.

The naval officer stated that he intended to obtain admission tickets from a certain member of the House of Representatives. After gaining admission to the building, he intended to explode a bomb, which would throw the entire proceedings into confusion. Simultaneously an attack was to be made on the building from the outside by a group of conspirators.

Questioned as to the significance of killing Chaplin, Koga stated that "Chaplin is a popular figure in the United States, and particularly the darling of the capitalist class. We believed that killing him would cause a war with America, and thus, so to speak, we could kill two birds with a single stone."

This, according to Nippon Demos, caused the preceding judge to smile, as well as other court officials.

Stars Behind in Longstreth Cup Racing Fixture

ACCORDING to the racing programme of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, if there had been no postponements during the season, today would have seen the conclusion of the contents for the Longstreth and the Devonian Cups over the Cadboro Bay course. The dinghies will finish their series if the weather is favorable, but the stars will have to race another day anyway. This does not mean the season's activities, either, for next Saturday the crews are to have an innings showing their boat-sailing abilities, while on Saturday, September 23, the racing season officially winds up at the local club, there will also be small boat racing.

W. S. JAMIESON LAID AT REST

Telegraph Operator, Former Resident of Victoria, Buried on Mainland

The funeral of William Samuel Jamieson, assistant chief operator of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph in Vancouver, and one-time resident of this city, who died suddenly on Tuesday morning, took place on Thursday afternoon in Vancouver and was largely attended.

Mr. Jamieson, who was the youngest son of the late Rev. Robert Jamieson, pioneer Presbyterian minister of British Columbia, had been in the service of the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs for over thirty years, and his death was one of the most valued members of the staff throughout the Dominion.

Mr. Jamieson has been the recipient of telegrams of condolence and appreciation of his services from the heads of all departments and from friends and associates in the service from all over Canada.

Mr. Jamieson is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Grace Alicia Jamieson, and other relatives are Robert Jamieson, of Victoria, formerly manager of the Victoria Theatre, and four sisters, Miss Alicia Jamieson, of Victoria; Mrs. E. A. Postill, of Vancouver; and Miss Sophie Jamieson and Mrs. T. H. Prosser, of Seattle.

TO GIVE DANCE AT LOCAL EXHIBITION

Victoria Kinsmen Club Adopts New Plan for Carrying Out Christmas Welfare Work

Victoria Kinsmen Club concluded final arrangements for operation of a dancing pavilion at the exhibition grounds during the week of the Willows Fair, when that organization held a dinner meeting Tuesday night. Expected to prove a feature of the fair, members are enthusiastically preparing the pavilion, which is expected to raise considerable money for charitable purposes.

A new means of collecting toys for distribution at Christmas time was adopted, when members unanimously endorsed the proposal of a well-known tobacco company which promised to exchange children's gifts for cigarette cartons. As explained to the club, the company will supply them with collection boxes, to be placed in tobacco and other stores, where members and other smokers may leave their wrappers and cigarette cards. The club will exchange these cartons regularly and exchange them for toys, according to a specified scale. Other service clubs are also taking advantage of similar offers in their welfare work, it was reported.

SEATTLE ORCHESTRA

The Seattle Symphony Orchestra, which has played in Victoria on two previous occasions, will appear at the Service Clubs Council, is expected to be heard again soon. The Kinsmen Club voted in favor of inviting the orchestra to play again in the city, when questioned by the council. Other clubs have already announced their desire to have a repeat performance, it was said.

Favorable report on the softball team, which finished the season on top of the Service Clubs League, was given by Secretary Jack Gibson.

No decision was made regarding the formation of a bowling team for Service Clubs league competition.

WIFE'S DELIGHT AT HUSBAND'S LOSS

30 Pounds of Fat!

Here is something all wives of fat men will be glad to know. It is the experience of a woman whose husband recently weighed 230 lbs. She writes:

"I really feel I must write and tell you that, after losing my husband for nearly three months, my husband has got his weight down from 230 lbs. to 200 lbs. This has been achieved by taking cod liver oil. I am too heavy also, and I started taking Kruschen only three weeks ago. Already I have got down from 133 lbs. to 124 lbs. We are delighted."—(Mrs. C.)

Kruschen combats the cause of fat by assisting the internal organs to perform their functions properly—to throw off each day those waste products and poisons which, if allowed to accumulate, will be converted by the body's chemistry into fatty tissue.

Gardenia Leaves Only 40,000 Bushels of Wheat at Churchill

CHURCHILL, Sept. 8 (CP).—Victims of economic straits, Churchill rested momentarily today as the last cargo from its 2,500,000-bushel modern wheat elevator steamed down Hudson Strait, carrying 223,708 bushels of prairie wheat in her capacious holds, the S. S. Gardenia, ninth steamer to sail from the northern port this season, was en route to London.

Less than 40,000 bushels of wheat remain in the elevator that was stored to capacity throughout the winter months. Shippers, however, were hopeful more grain will be available shortly to round out the most successful season in the three-year history of this Northern Manitoba seaport. The season, which opened July 13, has six weeks to run before the elevator closes.

The hull in the flow of wheat was due to lower grain rates on the Great Lakes, completely wiping out the differential in favor of Churchill.

Reporter Sees Ten Countries En Route From Asia to Italy

Lands Eventually in Sunny Italy, Where He Finds the Finest Cooking in the World, After Sampling the Worst

MILAN, Italy.—And here we are once more in sunny Italy, seven days from Toronto, four days from the burning ghats of India. Back again where you can drink water straight out of a tap without committing suicide, where the men don't draw pictures on their faces and there are no cobras under the bed. Long live Italy; home of the finest cooking in all the world.

I had intended to write a story on this pioneer flight to link the two greatest cities in the British Empire, but fatigue, rush and hulla-ballo got me down at Baghdad and there were complications with a red-haired girl at the Italian frontier, so I'll have to dig into mesquite notes and fit this jigsaw puzzle together.

When you rush through ten countries using fourteen different kinds of cash and dishing up twenty-five astonishing varieties of food in four days the old power of observation, if any, gets bilious.

Anyhow, we left the shrieks and tumult of All Baba's home town, Baghdad, at 3:30 in the morning and roamed into the stars. That was two days ago. All that day we roared westward with the setting sun chasing us like a bold bad villain in a cowboy melodrama.

First stop was at Ruthbah Wells, where they had crystal clear water gushing up into a fort. The whole atmosphere was exactly like Beau Geste with hairy Arab chieftains prowling around the place from enough artillery strapped to their ribs for a Bulgarian army.

Then we were away into the Holy Land of song and story. Across Palestine at 2,000 feet. The road to Jericho, lava lined and forbidding, looked even more ominous from the air than the land. The Dead Sea motionless below was like a lump of green glass. Then Jerusalem off to the right, with the Mohammedan Mosque of Omar looming over the birthplace of Christianity like a great brooding shadow. Sometimes planes drop right down on the Sea of Galilee, but we rushed on.

Nazareth with its spiky green cypress trees was a visual tid-bit nestled among black hostile hills, but was gone in five minutes. We said good-bye to the Hango, gulped icy lemonade, and swung our kit at the feet of inquisitive customs men.

When we reached the Suez Canal the air was clear as crystal again, and the green shaft of water which the Mediterranean with the Red Sea while dividing Asia from Africa was like a shiny emerald arrow.

CROSSING SAHARA

Sahara, with its fearsome reputation as the biggest waste land in the world, looked just like the thousands of sandy miles we had crossed over. We slept while racing up and down, then in a low slow swoop rumbled down into Hellopolis and the second leg of the pioneer flight was over. But no delay was made. We said good-bye to the Hango, gulped icy lemonade, and swung our kit at the feet of inquisitive customs men.

At this time all of us wore Indian Summer togs—shorts, split slacks and an open shirt. The customs men refused to pass my stuff because I had so many things. "You'll get it in Athens," an airman explained.

"Athens? But I can't go to Athens looking like something out of a jungle. I've got to have a suit and get shaved."

"Sorry," the man said. "You can have a bath in Cairo, but you'll have to put on the same clothes."

The Arab driver raved and ratted me up through auburn Cairo, around beautiful mosques with their thin, pencil-like minarets pointing into a sky as warm with fleecy clouds, then down the main street with its clattering, shrieking, pawing dragomen and into the Continental, one of the four great meeting-places of the world.

We had three hours in Cairo, and I spent them, as everyone does, trying to prowl the gorgeous perfumed bazaar but spending most of the time fighting off Egyptian guides, the lowest form of human life in all Africa.

A low blue bus sped us up the twisting streets where once the Pharaohs passed, through a great, sooty station and into a white train. In a few minutes we were pioneers and our hundreds of well-stuffed mail bags were away to Alexandria. It was late at night when we got there, but some of the boys, even though they had started the day at 3:30, decided to go out and burn up the town. I trailed along and into the coffee club where they dished up that soupy stuff you eat half, drink half. The drums were rumbling and the cymbals clashing as Arab girls twisted themselves into knots and danced the finger fluttering snake hip hulas they did for Cleopatra.

AMERICANS FEWER

The city seemed clean and cool and very busy. Night clubs and cabarets were crowded with smartly-dressed tourists, but this year, instead of an ascendancy of Americans, you find the Frenchman and the Greek.

We got back to our digs at three, ate big bowls of cold fruit and were whisked away to the wharves. There a white-gowned Egyptian lofly gave us permission to leave the country, and we got into a motorboat. That took us out to the Sclpio, a huge, shiny flying boat. I was last man into this plane, and there was only half a seat left. On the other half, trim and neat, sat a red-haired girl from Singapore. We didn't get exactly plump because, after two sleepless nights, I was conversational up to my brother's self. Besides, I looked like a walking billboard for "Bring-Em-Back-Alive." But after a couple of hours, I fell sound asleep and was soon draped over this girl's shoulder. Instead of getting high, I slept like a babe. I slept like a babe.

The island of Crete loomed out of the blue, and we swooped down into a beautiful bay of dancing green and black shadows against chalky white rocks. They took on gas at Grete while we ten passenger were fed biscuits and cheese aboard a beautiful white yacht.

Then came Corfu with its dinky little fishing villages and the black shadow of Greece far across the sea. Mount Olympus stood out like a sore thumb, but there weren't any gods out to say hello. We dropped down into Phaleron Bay for a brief few minutes, in which the Greeks, full of awful diseases coming from the island, wouldn't let us out of the airport. Then into the blue again and up through the vineyards and wheat fields of Europe. We were in our third continent in four days. You can have all Asia with her teeming millions, and blackest Africa, too, give me Europe any day.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR FALL FAIR

Good Support Given Agricultural Society at Ladysmith—Numerous Classes on Prize List

LADYSMITH, Sept. 8.—Arrangements are completed for the annual Fall Fair, which takes place in the Agricultural Hall here on September 13 and 14.

The appeal of the Agricultural Society for support has received generous response and the prize list is quite as impressive as usual, despite the absence of the usual Government grant this year.

There are 311 classes outlined in the official prize list, covering every phase of district and community activity, and the directors anticipate record entries in all classes and the absence of the usual Government grant this year.

E. W. Forward is presenting a silver cup to the exhibitor gaining the highest points in the flower exhibits, and competition in this division is limited to residents of Vancouver Island north of the Malahat.

L. C. W. Villies will officially open the fair on Wednesday afternoon, and the Ladysmith-South Wellington Silver Band will play during the afternoon.

REVIEWS LIFE OF REVIVALIST

Dean Quainton Gives Lecture on John Wesley and Methodist Revival

"John Wesley and the Methodist Revival," a subject that is particularly fitting to the observance of the centenary of the Oxford Movement, which is being celebrated this year, was the theme of the opening of a series of six addresses on religious revivals of the last two centuries, given by Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia, at the Memorial Hall here Thursday night.

The life history of the great John Wesley is in itself a dramatic episode of the stirring of the national conscience in the eighteenth century, and the results that followed the passing of the Methodist movement. The Dean was not very complimentary in his reading of the old records, which he said followed the passing of the Methodist movement. The Dean was not very complimentary in his reading of the old records, which he said followed the passing of the Methodist movement.

Beginning with the early life of John Wesley, with whom must be associated the name of George Whitefield, the orator, Dean Quainton connected the series of events that transpired during the century and a half of the life of the great preacher. It was, the Dean observed, in 1738 that the revival actually started, and while churches were filled and people flocked to hear the words of the three crusaders of a new movement, storms of opposition became apparent.

OAK BAY OWNERS GUARD HOLDINGS

Forty-Four Parcels Sold for Taxes Many of Which Expected to Be Redeemed

The tax sale in Oak Bay held yesterday morning at the municipal hall revealed the fact that owners of property in that district hold them as valuable investments. As a result the number of parcels that reached the sale was comparatively small, only forty-four being offered out of a total of some 5,000 parcels within the municipality. Of these twenty-one were sold.

The anxiety to protect their holdings was further evidenced by a few dramatic scenes. Just as the sale was about to open at 10 o'clock, the owner of a house tendered the amount of the taxes and took his property out of the sale. Another owner of acreage, when the sale was about half over and when this lot was about to be offered, appeared and tendered the amount. This was accepted and the owner was allowed to leave the property.

Citizen's Recreation Shelter Funds Dwindling—Outline Winter Program

The committee responsible for the unemployed men's shelter held their regular monthly meeting Thursday, with H. J. O'Leary in the chair. The financial report, given by R. F. Mr. Taylor appeals for continued support from the public, as the operation of the rooms must continue through the winter months, and funds now on hand, collected at the recent tag day, will not cover expenses for more than the next two months. The average monthly expense is $200.

Appeal for Workroom Meets With Sympathy

More Than $275 Pledged of the $750 Required Monthly to Guarantee Continuance of Employment for Women

A slowly-increasing response to their recently-instituted drive for funds to carry on the Women's Workroom is being experienced by the committee in charge. Of the total of $750 monthly that is required to guarantee the continuance of the workroom, the committee now reports that $275 has been promised. This is encouraging, although it is as yet quite inadequate, and the committee is appealing to the public to help.

The workroom, which is a place where women who are unable to find employment elsewhere can find a place to work, is a place where women who are unable to find employment elsewhere can find a place to work. The support required is, as above stated, $750 monthly for seven months, or a total of $5,250. With this sum guaranteed the room can be kept in operation until the end of March next year, by which time it is possible that conditions may have improved.

To finance this amount the appeal made is as follows:

Ten persons to donate $25 a month for seven months; twenty persons to donate $10 monthly for the same period; thirty to donate $5 monthly for seven months, and 150 to pledge themselves to give $1 monthly for seven months.

Of this amount, the response to date has been as follows: Five persons of $25 a month for seven months; four promises of $10; nine of $5, and nine of $1 for seven months, and cash gifts of different amounts equalling fifty-seven promises of $1 a month for seven months and an additional $147.

REASONS FOR UNREST GIVEN

Norman W. Whittaker Addresses Meeting of Liberal Women's Forum

Maintaining that the Liberals were the only group or party entering the coming Provincial election with a definite progressive platform and a clear-cut policy, Norman Whittaker, Liberal candidate for Saanich, yesterday afternoon, addressed a well-attended meeting of the Liberal Women's Forum, and advanced reasons why they should support the group which he represented.

Following a survey of the social legislation brought down by the Liberals during Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith's time as member of the Provincial Cabinet, Mr. Whittaker made a short review of the present political situation.

"A great many candidates in the field, a great many groups seeking office: Tolmie Unionists, only three of whom have been nominated to date; Bowserites, Independents, C.C.F., and the Liberal party," he summarized. On the face of it seemed rather complex, but personally he did not think the situation serious. In fact the change would be dull, as the Liberals would have very little opposition, "being the only party with a definite progressive platform." There was a danger, however, owing to the quietness of the campaign, the electorate might be lulled into a jaded attitude when it was of the utmost importance that every available vote should be polled.

The large number of Independent candidates for the Legislature, he said, was a danger, as it spread dissatisfaction with the party system. This in turn was traceable locally, he said, to "world depression and the fact that the province has been in a slump for five years in British Columbia." The Liberal party, no doubt, had made mistakes, but prior to 1928 there had never been any dissatisfaction with the party system, a fact proved by the absence of an Independent candidate. The Conservatives, he said, had lost the support of their party followers, and defection and dissatisfaction must be traced directly to their incapacity coupled with world-wide conditions, he continued.

When the Liberals left office the public debt was $104,000,000. In the five years since then, this public debt had increased to $150,000,000, or $46,000,000 of which was due to unemployment. Where did the other $51,000,000 go?

THE PARTIES
The Bowser party, Mr. Whittaker described as composed largely of Conservatives "who did not think they had much to offer the province." Although called "non-partisan," it was not non-partisan, but was fostered by the "big interests," the agricultural and industrial interests. Mr. Pattullo was making it part of the Liberal policy to see that interest charges on the public debt were reduced. Mr. Bowser, when asked as to his intentions in connection with bonded indebtedness, had answered that he had always been a conservative administrator, and believed in encouraging capital to come into the province. Independent.

'Substance' Is Subject Of Sermon

"Substance" is the subject of the sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 10. Among the citations which comprise the sermon is the following from the Bible: "But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it" (Isaiah lv, 1).

The sermon-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Corporal sense, or error, may seem to hide Truth, health, harmony, and Science, as the mind obscures the sun or the mountains; but Science, the sunshine of Truth, will melt away the shadow and reveal the celestial peaks" (page 299).

MORE AND MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING AT "THE BAY"—THERE'S A REASON!

What Today Means

"VIRGO"

If September 9 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 6 to 7:30 a.m., from 9 to 10 a.m., and from 4:30 to 5:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 12 noon to 1:10 p.m. and from 2:30 to 3:55 p.m.

You may find yourself easily provoked to anger on this date, and unless you watch yourself you will find yourself engaging in a series of quarrels and matters of no import.

Lovers, particularly, will seem to be at swords points, and the "first quarrel" may occur today. There will be present a tendency to be unfair, and judges and officials of athletic events will have to be on guard. The child born on this September 9 will probably be of the type who will take a whole hand if offered a finger; you will probably find that he is out for all that he can get. A tendency to be dishonest in petty ways and to try to get away with things will have to be watched, lest it lead to more serious practices.

If September 9 is the date of your birth, you are more than a plain-spoken person; there are no frills about you; you never put on, and people invariably know exactly where they stand with you. You have many friends and admirers in business, both among your associates and your competitors. You are regarded as unswerving.

The women born on September 9 are more than likely most substantial people. They make for themselves a very definite place both in their communities and in their immediate neighborhoods. They enjoy club associations and are most active in such work; they are quick to assume leadership, they have ideas, and they know how to get the cooperation of their fellow members and put things across. They are well liked by those of their own sex and by all children. The men generally enjoy lots of outdoor exercise, with preference being shown to tennis and golf, swimming they enjoy also. Towards their children these people are most loving and under-

CHINESE GAMBLING PLACE WHEN RAIDED HAD ONLY FEW CENTS

As a result of a raid conducted by the city police under the charge of Inspector John T. Boulton and Sergeant Florence and Acreman, five were paid by the Chinese inmates of a gambling house on Pan Tan Alley amounting to $120. Wong Yuen and fifty-nine others appeared in the City Police Court yesterday morning, charged with having been found in the place. Through their counsel, Thomas Miller, the sixty pleaded guilty, but Mr. Miller represented that the inmates of the place were in large measure there simply for shelter, and were not engaged in gambling. They were not a burden, therefore, on the city.

PERRY AND CRAWFORD ENTER U.S. TENNIS SEMIS

English Net Star Eliminates Quist In Straight Sets

Displays Great Form to Trim Australian at Forest Hills—Crawford Administers Lesson to Clifford Sutter—Shields and Stoeven Other Survivors

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 8 (CP)—The British Empire's two greatest tennis players, Australia's all-conquering Jack Crawford and Frederick J. Perry, of England, today, entered opposite ends of the semi-final bracket for the United States men's singles championship.

In one match tomorrow, Crawford faces Frank Shields, powerful New Yorker, who, today, despite some trouble with his booming service, demolished his way to victory over the resolute Gregory Mangin, United States indoor titleholder, by scores of 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Calculating a stroking machine as smooth as Forest Hills has seen since Rene Lacoste rode the heights, Crawford administered a tennis lesson, to Clifford B. Sutter, of New Orleans, third ranking United States player, to the tune of 6-3, 6-3, 6-4, and the issue was never in doubt.

Perry trounced Adrian Quist, the handsome young Australian who, yesterday, eliminated Wilmer Allison. The Englishman displayed a magnificent brand of tennis, applied pressure whenever the mood struck him, and won easily, 6-4, 6-4, 6-0.

GRANT GOES UNDER
Lester Stoeven, fair-haired Californian, who, tomorrow, plays Perry, entered the semi-finals with a rough-and-tumble victory over Bryan (Betsy) Grant, of Georgia, the scrappy little Southerner who, yesterday, conquered Ellsworth Vines, defending champion. The scores were 8-6, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5.

There never has been an all-British final at Forest Hills. In 1926 there was an all-French battle, when Lacoste beat Jean Borotra for the title. There have only been three invading victors, Hugh Doherty, of England, in 1909; Lacoste, in 1926 and 1927; and Henri Cochet, in 1928.

Crawford is seeking the "grand slam" of tennis, having already taken the Wimbledon, French and Australian titles. No player has yet won the world's four major titles.

HEAVY HITTING MARKS BIG SIX

Every Member, Except Gehrig, Gets Two Hits—Foxy Poles Out Forty-Second Homer

Heavy hitting marked the Big Six programme yesterday with every member except Lou Gehrig getting two hits, and Wes Schulmerich receiving some extra benefit when a semi-official recheck of the figures added another hit to his total. This sent his average a point above Chick Hafey's and gave him an undisputed hold on the last place in the sextette. Chuck Klein, Spud Davis and Heinie Manush gained a point apiece, while Gehrig and Jimmie Foxy, who walked his forty-second homer, held their averages even.

HARD GROUNDS DELAY RUGBY

Sun-Baked Pitches Force Postponements of Many Games in Old Country

LONDON, Sept. 8 (CP).—Sun-baked grounds have resulted in the cancellation of numerous Rugby games scheduled to be played in England, tomorrow. This is the first time in the history of the game that such a course has been resorted to. Usually it is Mid-Winter, when frostbound grounds result in matches being called off.

Soccer games will be played as scheduled, but line-ups have been changed considerably on account of injuries to many players. Chelsea has suffered badly in this respect, four of their players being unfit, including H. Gallacher, the famous forward. Hindson and Keppel, Fulham's backs, are both on the injured list, the former suffering from a fractured leg. He will probably be out of the game two or three months.

BILLIARD LOOP HOLDS MEETING

City Cue League Draw Up Plans for Coming Season—Crowther Re-elected President

Preparations for the opening of the City Billiard League were made at the annual meeting, held last night at the Elks Club. Nine delegates from the various organizations and clubs attended and reported that teams would be represented again in the three divisions. Annual reports were tendered by the retiring officers.

Secretary Dave Croston's financial statement being received with appreciation and thanks, as a substantial balance was shown. Bill Crowther was returned as president for another term, while Percy Payne was the choice for vice-presidency. Dave Croston was made secretary-treasurer. The executive decided that the regulations and rules will be practically the same, only a few minor changes being made. Registration of the teams and players must be made by September 25, the evening of the next meeting.

The teams signifying their intention of seeking the honors this year follow: Elks, Army and Navy, Britannia Club, Pro Patria, Britannia Branch, Island Club, Veterans of France, Garrison Sergeants' Mess and Garrison Recreation team.

PLAYERS WIN MATCH EASILY

Defeat Gentlemen by Innings and 49 Runs—M.C.C. Eleven In Drawn Game

LONDON, Sept. 8 (CP).—Players gained an overwhelming victory over the gentlemen in their match, which was concluded at Polkatone today, winning by an innings and forty-six runs.

The professional cricketers declared with their score at 352 for eight wickets, the amateurs replying with 311 and 195. Concluding his innings today, Ashdown made 117 for the players and Chapman scored 68 in their opponents' second innings.

Although H. D. G. Leveson-Gower's eleven fought hard to force a win in the game with the M.C.C. Australian team, they were beaten by the clock and the match was declared drawn. The M.C.C. scored 349 and 289 for three, declared their opponents obtaining 309 and 286 for six.

FATHERS AND SONS TOURNAMENT SET TODAY
The annual fathers and sons' golf tournament will take place today at the Royal Oakwood Club for the Mayhew Cup. The meet will be eighteen holes, medal play, under full handicap.

The regular monthly medal competition will be held at the Uplands Golf Club tomorrow, over the eighteen-hole distance, under full handicap. Post entries will be received and two prizes will be awarded.

BONNIE GRAFTON WINS HANDICAP

California Horse Races to Victory at Longacres—Pillow Fight Finishes Last

LONGACRES RACE TRACK, RENTON, Wash., Sept. 8 (AP).—Bonnie Grafton, California's queen of the three-year-olds, was the winner of the Fresno Handicap today, with the New Zealand invader, Pillow Fight, acting badly all the way and finishing fourth and last, lengths behind the others.

Bonnie Grafton, with Jockey Glen Smith, outgamed Linden Tree, owned by George Drumheller, of Walls, Walla, by a length to set a new track record of 1:10 4-5 for the six furlongs. The Pasadena Stable's Grafton was third.

Pillow Fight, despite Jockey George Ellis' desperate efforts, bolted to the outside fence after a sluggish start, and at the half mile ran to the far side of the turn and kept going wide to the finish.

The second daily double, Grafton to Frank D., paid $386.70. Results follow:

NANAIMO TEAM HEARS REPORT

Football Delegate Tells of Situation Existing—Proposals Submitted Are Endorsed

NANAIMO, Sept. 8.—Nanaimo City Football Club executive tonight heard the report of delegate Courtney, who attended a meeting in Vancouver Wednesday night, regarding a proposal for the formation of a new football league composed of six clubs for the coming season. The local executive endorsed the proposal set forth, and appointed President R. Sample to attend the meeting in Vancouver on Saturday next to sign necessary papers.

A proposal of Victoria officials, which had been laid before Mr. Courtney providing for the playing of home and away games between Nanaimo City and Victoria Leaders for the Island championship, and also for games between a Victoria all-star team and Leaders for the Brackman-Ker Cup, was favorably received, but definite action was delayed until after the next meeting.

FOOTBALL ENTRIES TO CLOSE FRIDAY
Entries for the First Division of the Victoria and District Football League will close Friday, September 15, Secretary A. J. Campbell announced last night. Teams are urged to get their forms in before this date, if possible.

Hubbell Turns Back Pittsburgh Pirates In Final of Series

Giants' First String Twirler Brings Them Through to 2-1 Win—Cubs and Cards Win—Senators Trounce Sox—Foxy Hits Forty-Second

NATIONAL LEAGUE
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8 (AP).—Carl Hubbell pulled the New York Giants' faltering fortunes back into safer regions today and the National League leaders increased their lead to six and a half games by beating Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1, in the final game of the series, 3-2, but the final triumph quenched a good many of the Pirates' hopes of beating out the New Yorkers in the pennant race. The Corsairs have only twenty-one more games to play and the Giants twenty-three, a scant allowance on which to overcome a six and a half-game lead even though the league leaders still face the remainder of a hard Western tour.

Results follow:
First game—R. H. E.
New York ..... 2 7 0
Pittsburgh ..... 1 6 1
Batteries—Hubbell and Mancuso; Smith, Hoyt and Grace, Finney.

Cubs Win Again
CHICAGO, Sept. 8 (AP).—Chicago Cubs, continuing their desperate though belated bid to retain their National League laurels, ran their winning streak to five straight today by sweeping the three-game set from Boston Braves, 8-3. It was the seventh straight defeat for the Braves.

Brooklyn ..... 0 6 6
Cincinnati ..... 12 13 0
Batteries—Johnson, Ryan, Leonard and Lopez, Outen; Johnson and Crouch.

Cards Win Again
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 8 (AP).—St. Louis Cardinals, back in a battling stride against the hapless Phillies, today topped the visitors, 6-3. Cardinal bats swung into action in the first inning when St. Louis accounted for three runs. A home run by Klein, his twenty-seventh of the season, ended the Phillie scoring in the ninth.

New York ..... 5 10 0

Foxy Hits Another
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8 (AP).—Taking their third straight from Cleveland Indians, Philadelphia Athletics today climbed to within two games of third place with a 9-3 win.

Merritt (Sugar) Cain's six-hit pitching and Jimmy Foxy's forty-second homer of the year had a lot to do with the A's win over the third-place Indians.

Little Bedtime Stories

Peter Follows Jimmy Skunk

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Peter Rabbit didn't know just what to think. He was puzzled. He was very much puzzled. Slowpoke the Box Turtle was anxious. If anything was to be told by the look on his face. Peter had just told Slowpoke that Jimmy Skunk had gone over to the Green Forest and he, Peter, suspected that it was to look for Mrs. Slowpoke. At once that worried look had come to Slowpoke and he said that he knew that that was what Jimmy Skunk was about.

But even if this was quite true, why should Slowpoke be worried? That was what puzzled Peter.

Hadn't Jimmy Skunk himself told him that Mrs. Slowpoke was just as well protected as Slowpoke? Certainly he had. If that was the case Jimmy couldn't harm Mrs. Slowpoke if he wanted to. So why should Slowpoke worry?

Peter stroked his whiskers. After this he "atched one long ear and then the other with his long, jird feet. But this didn't help." "Any, No, sir, it didn't help him a bit.

"Well," said he slowly, "I don't see what harm Jimmy can do even if he is looking for Mrs. Slowpoke."

"Goodness gracious, Peter! What under the sun makes you think I Slowpoke. "Mrs. Slowpoke is quite able to take care of herself. I haven't the least worry in the world so far as she is concerned. Jimmy Skunk can't hurt her. She is as safe this minute as I am. It isn't Mrs. Slowpoke I am anxious about. Just get that right out of your head, Peter."

"Then what is it?" demanded Peter.

"That," replied Slowpoke slowly, "is quite none of your business. It is my own very, very private affair. That is, it is mine and Mrs. Slowpoke's."

Peter knows when it is useless to keep on asking questions. Also, he knows when he has been sat on, as the saying is. "I think," said he, "that I must be moving along."

He said this very politely and started off for the Green Forest. As long as he was in sight of Slowpoke he walked slowly, but the minute he thought he couldn't be seen he started ahead pell-mell, lippy-lippy-lip. You see he was in a hurry to catch up with Jimmy Skunk. At least he wanted to get in sight of Jimmy. You see he had decided that the way to find out what he so much wanted to know would be to follow Jimmy and see what he did.

This wasn't a nice thing to do of course not. Everybody knows that. But Peter didn't stop to think of that. He was curious. By spying he might be able to satisfy that dreadful curiosity. Just then his curiosity was all Peter had in mind. So he hurried after Jimmy Skunk up the Lone Little Path through the Green Forest.

Peter kept his eyes ahead and it wasn't long before he caught sight of something white moving slowly. Peter stopped hurrying. He crept forward very carefully. That white thing proved to be just what he suspected, one of the white stripes

THE FORGOTTEN MAN—THE RESEARCH WORKER

It is certainly gratifying to the medical profession and to all others who give the matter thought, to see grateful patients recognize the difficulties of research workers and endeavor to give them some financial aid.

Thus in England a group of asthma sufferers have completed an organization to aid research physicians who are doing work on the cause and relief of asthma.

Mr. H. G. Wells, the author, has invited his fellow sufferers with diabetes to follow the example of the asthma sufferers, and help all workers and institutions spending their time on diabetes.

He points out that, thanks to a regulated diet and to insulin, they are living active, happy lives, while a few years ago many "would have been uncomfortable and dying slowly or already dead but for this work of a small group of experimenters and practitioners who have brought this particular maladjustment or disease under control."

Mr. Wells says that diabetes, now financially able to do so, should not only help these research workers but help also those diabetics who are not well enough off to get the diet and insulin treatment. In other words diabetics in good or fair circumstances should tax themselves for the benefit of all diabetics.

When we remember the years devoted to the dietetic control of diabetes by Joslin, of Boston, and others, then the work done by Banting and Best, discoverers of insulin, in Toronto, under the most trying circumstances, with the final refining process of insulin developed by Collip, we can get some idea of the patience and perseverance of practitioners and research men.

As you know, if these men were paid for the lives saved, it would run into many millions of dollars, aside from the happiness achieved and suffering relieved.

RATE ON WATER HELD TOO HIGH

Real Estate Board Seeks Information Dealing With Charges in Victoria

The question of water rates in the city received attention at the hands of the Real Estate Board yesterday. On motion of R. H. B. Ker, it was decided that the secretary should obtain from the City Hall the report of the recommendations reached by the public works committee of the council dealing with the subject of suggested increase in the water rates.

On the obtaining of this data it was set forth that the executive of the Real Estate Board should seriously consider it and if deemed to be out of keeping with the interests of the city, immediate action should be taken by the executive to present its views before the members of the council before the report was disposed of at the council meeting on Monday.

Previous to this, objection was raised by some of the members of the board relative to the rates charged for water in the city.

BASIS OF RATES

Major H. Cuthbert Holmes wanted information as to the basis upon which the rates were fixed. He had been informed that included in the basic amount upon which the rates were fixed was the item of replacing the water system of the city. This, if true, was to great a burden to thrust upon the ratepayers of the present day, he contended. It was decided to get exact information in this respect.

Incidentally the subject of the differences between the city and Oak Bay with respect to the coupling up of the water system between the two municipalities came up. W. C. Warner took the position that Oak Bay should contribute to the cost of the twenty-inch pipe line, arguing that it was installed for the benefit of Oak Bay.

The president of the board, T. J. Goodlake, who is also a member of the Oak Bay council offered on this matter of the Oak Bay controversy to debate with Mr. Warner on the subject after the meeting.

DIETRICH STARS IN CAPITOL FILM

German Actress Latest Picture, "Song of Songs," Rated by Reviewers as Her Best

Seidom, if ever, has any film Hollywood has produced, represented such a union of the pictorial, histrionic, artistic, literary and musical fields as "Marlene Dietrich's latest Paramount picture, "The Song of Songs," opening today at the Capitol Theatre.

Any film starring Miss Dietrich would be assured of a big headstart in pictorial quality to begin with. Directed by Rouben Mamoulian, who made "Chevalier" and "Love Me Tonight," "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and other highly praised pictures, Miss Dietrich is said to give an outstanding dramatic performance.

This picture, incidentally, is the first Dietrich film with a director other than her discoverer, Josef von Sternberg.

From a histrionic standpoint, the picture is exceptional for the performances of the supporting cast—Brian Aherne, romantic newcomer to pictures from the legitimate stage, Lionel Atwill, Allison Skipworth, Hardie Albright and Helen Freeman.

When you refer to someone speaking to you on the street as "accosting" you, you are not thinking of a rib? But that is how it started.

Literally, "accost" means "side by side." From the Latin "accostare," it goes back to the Latin "costa," rib, which, originally combined with "ac" meaning "to," produce "to bring side by side." Coming into English through the French "accoster," "accost" first meant "to be alongside," then "to come alongside," then "to approach," and now "to speak to."
